Dear TIGP students,

One Academic year (2 semesters) TIGP Elementary Chinese Class is compulsory for Foreign TIGP students. Each Foreign TIGP student is required to take one Academic year (2 semesters) before graduate.

Elementary Level One: Autumn Semester

Elementary Level Two: Spring Semester

The TIGP Autumn Elementary Chinese class regulations are as below:

1. When students registered for a Chinese class, they are not allowed to change/switch to another class during the semester. Students cannot switch classes because different course schedules! If students change/switch their classes, they will be recorded absence.
2. Each semester, there are 18 classes (weeks) in total. Students need to attend more than 15 weeks of the class to pass the class. If a student does not attend more than 15 classes (weeks), he/she will fail the class and is required to re-take the same level of class again next year. During the semester, if you go back to your country/go to other cities for more than 3 weeks, you will miss more than 3 classes of this semester. In this case, you must re-take the same level of Elementary Chinese class again next year.
3. No reasons for absence will be accepted.
4. The grading policy is as follows:
If you miss 1 class (week), you will lose 5 points from your final grade.
If you miss 2 classes (weeks), you will lose 10 points from your final grade.
If you miss 3 classes (weeks), you will lose 20 points from your final grade.
If you miss more than 4 classes, you will lose 40 points, you must re-take the same level of the Chinese class next year.
5. In order to pass the Autumn Elementary Chinese class, your final grade must be higher than 70. If you fail, you will need to re-take the same level of Chinese class next year.
6. The deadline to switch classes is October 4th. If students are initially registered for the Monday morning Chinese class and want to change to the Monday evening Chinese class or vice versa, they must contact the TIGP staff, Ms. Nicole Chen by the deadline (October 4th). Students who do not inform the TIGP staff before switching classes will be recorded absence. Please kindly find the attached Monday morning and Monday evening class student list.
7. The Monday morning and evening Elementary Chinese class starts on September 27th.
8. This semester, there are many National Holidays on Mondays; therefore, the teachers will arrange some make-up classes on Saturdays. The teachers will inform you details of the make-up classes when the semester begins.
9. The Policy of waived test:

Some students have learned Chinese before and want to take the waived test of the Fall semester. The Chinese teacher has arranged two times of tests for those students. Please note that students must complete the waived test on the following times:
